WOMEN'S GOLF CHAMP WON'T DEFEND TITLE

Mrs. Clarence H. Vanderbeck.

Contrary to expectations, Mrs. Clarence H. Vanderbeck will not defend her golf title this year. A few days ago the women's national champion announced that illness would compel her to default in the coming tourney, to be held at Belmont Springs, N. Y., next month.

victim of the order, being shot to death by a firing squad in the cemetery half a mile south of the town. He had been convicted on several charges of theft and one hold up. Colonel Frijaio requested the city police officers to turn over to him the person of Francisco Romero, another alleged thief, now serving a sentence for vagrancy, saying he had pronounced the death sentence against him, also. The Douglas officials refused. It was currently reported today that two other executions, those of a baker and an automobile chauffeur, all alleged to be connected with the Legalista movement, had taken place last night, but this could not be confirmed.
